THINKING BIG

Is a Job Requirement

We wouldn't be here without our talent for innovation. Our pioneering approach to specialty finance has helped us close more than 260 deals, representing $11B+ in total investments. And we know even bigger things are ahead. From analysts to strategists to statisticians to developers, your bold ideas will help us get there.

OUR BUSINESS

Founded in 2001, Credigy is a global specialty finance company with flexibility across the capital structure to acquire or finance a broad range of assets. As a consolidated subsidiary of National Bank of Canada, we invest in consumer assets across multiple asset classes and geographies. We are the partner of choice when financial institutions face complex challenges and strategic changes. If you haven't heard of us yet, we're okay with that — we focus on serving our business partners, not making a name for ourselves.

WE LOVE MONDAY MORNINGS as much as Friday Afternoons

That's because we're doing interesting work alongside people we admire. Working at Credigy gives you the support and flexibility to create a career you love. What matters to you, matters to us.

WE'RE IN IT TOGETHER

We don't get caught up in titles and we believe good ideas come from anywhere. We know that the wins are sweeter when we all play a role.

CUT YOUR OWN PATH

It's your career. We give you the space and support to make the most of it. Explore doing what you love and let's build a flexible career path that works for both of us.

CHOOSE TO TRUST

We're big on transparency. We like questions — even the hard ones. We champion curiosity and open communication because we know that builds relationships and trust.
